

DVSA prosecution

28 July 2020

Serial Impersonator who took driving tests sentenced to 3.5 years.

Teresa Hay prosecuting on behalf on the DVSA concluded a case at Harrow Crown Court today. The sentence involved a serial impersonator who took driving tests across the country over a 15 month period. He was convicted of 38 separate offences relating to 19 impersonations and was sentenced to 3.5 years.