

Archie Mackay

Barrister

Call: 2003

Email: am@5pb.co.uk

Archie has the breadth and depth of experience to be expected of a member of a top set of criminal chambers.

VAT number: 872210055

Bar council number: 45524

He has been instructed for the prosecution and defence in the whole range of serious criminal cases including allegations of serious violence, dishonesty and drugs offences.

Archie is appointed to the Attorney General's Unified List of Prosecuting Advocates on the London and South Eastern Circuits (recently instructed in a 7-handed complex VAT fraud)

Recent cases in which Archie has been led include:

- by Miranda Moore QC and Martin Evans in the prosecution of a conspiracy to supply heroin,
- by Justin Cole defending in a money laundering allegation,
- by Emma Deacon in the prosecution of a conspiracy to commit Tax Credit fraud.

Appointments / Professional

- BA Hons, University of Manchester
- South Eastern Circuit

Scholarship

- Sir Joseph Cantley Memorial Prize 2003 (Middle Temple)

Languages

- Archie studied Spanish at University

Privacy Notice